

Measured-ring validation at $|G| = 72$: the stop-and-wait step model predicts the simulation every constant read from the configuration (1,300 ns hop, 492.3 B/ns realised rate) — nothing fitted

Ring model vs simulation (worst residual 0.33%)

Which ring-model term dominates

